Chief McClay: He felt that when he excused himself from the meeting on Tuesday he thought they were done talking about the police budget, but he watched the video and saw there was more discussion about the police budget that wasn't true. He stated that his budget was never 2.2 million dollars and that he didn't not communicate with the Borough Manager for 8 months. He talked about his part-time officers and that he needs to hire a full-time officer before they are hired by another department. He wants the budget to reflect the hiring of a full-time officer. He presented Council with a proposed budget. He requested that the drug reimbursement money be put into current assets, just like the SRO Officer money is set up.
