SPECIAL PRESENTATIONS

There were no special presentations this evening.

HEARING OF THE PUBLIC

1. Eileen Dreisbach
She stated that there are problems with the traffic on South Pennsylvania Avenue. The traffic was re-routed down Green Street due to pipes that fell off a truck. She requested that we ask the Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission to shut down US1 exit to Pennsylvania Avenue if it were to happen again. She stated that at the Stockham Building there is a brick hanging out and it is dangerous. Check with Chuck McIlhinney.

There being that no one else wished to speak, public comment portion was closed.

DISCUSSION

Discussion ensued with regards to Puppy Mills. It was suggested that we ask the solicitor to check to see if Pennsylvania law affects Puppy Mill Pennsylvania law with regards to groomers and veterinarians. Secretary signature line needs to be added to the Puppy Mill Ordinance.

Discussion ensued with regards to Winterfest and the parade. It was agreed that the Senior Center will be handling the parade.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

There were no announcements this evening.

ADJOURNMENT

Motion to adjourn by Ms. Smith and seconded by Ms. Larison.
Meeting adjourned.
