HEARING OF THE PUBLIC

1. Kurt Holthenrichs - He still wants minutes from the Civil Service meeting.
2. John Paster - He wanted to know who hires the Code Enforcement position.

Mr. Cicero replied, the Borough Manager does the hiring. He asked who is replacing the Fire Marshal.

Ms. Smith replied, you can hire a Fire Marshal or use an outside company.

Mr. Cicero replied, the County or State investigates fire.

Mr. Paster stated, if you work 52 days a year, there are enough hours in a day.

3. Jane Burger - She talked about baseball. She talked about Council not being able to have a 25 year agreement.

There being that no one else wished to speak, public comment portion was closed.

DISCUSSION

Ms. Smith stated that Google Maps show that from 2003 there are all kinds of new fields from that date.

Ms. Larison requested that they pay quarterly a total of $15,000.00.

Mr. Cicero stated, if they don't show a roster we don't know how much they're paying they Borough. Roster to Borough a week before 1st day, show rosters. How about $15,000.00 quarterly.

Mr. Pepitone will once again go back to Morrisville Little League to see if we can come to some type of agreement.

There was no vote on Code Enforcement.

Mr. Kerner requested that the Levee Trail be renamed Capital River Walk.
